BANDITS LOOT BANK.

Carry Away $8,000 After Fight With Posse of Citizens.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—The old days of Jesse James and the Younger brothers were revived for a short time Saturday at Frankfort, a little town in Spink county, South Dakota, when the James River bank was robbed of $8,000 in cash and some valuable papers.

The deed was committed shortly before daybreak. The vault and safe were blown open, seven charges of dynamite being employed for the purpose. Nearly the entire front of the building was wrecked.

The explosions aroused the citizens of the town, who were, however, kept at a distance by several of the robbers, who, gun in hand, acted as guards both in front and rear of the building while their companions were robbing the bank.

Many shots were fired by the bandits to hold the citizens at bay. The only citizen hit was Frank Fitzpatrick, a hotel guest. He was severely, but not fatally wounded.

Then the robbers, having completed operations inside the bank and still holding the crowd off, broke into the Chicago & Northwestern railway station house and secured a handcar, on which they made their escape. They left the handcar midway between the towns of Frankfort and Redfield.

The robbers are believed to be the same who robbed the first state bank of Stransburg, S. D., Wednesday night, as the methods employed in both cases were identical.

So far as could be judged all the robbers were strangers in that part of the country, and are evidently members of the gang that looted three or four banks in the northwest within the past week.

SLAIN ON WEDDING EVE.

Guests Awaited Ceremony, But the Bridegroom Did Not Come.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 24—While the body of Homer Casey lay in his home at Ragelsville, Ind., Miss Anna Stone, daughter of Peter M. Stone, of Bloomfield, one of Greene county's wealthiest citizens who was to have married him Saturday, collapsed under the shock of the tragedy.

Casey came to Bloomfield Friday to secure the marriage license. The Stone home was filled with happy guests. The hour set for the ceremony came and passed and when the bridegroom failed to appear an inquiry was begun.

A telegram to Ragelsville brought the information that Casey's dead body had been found with a bullet hole through the head at his home. It is believed that he was murdered.

Complete mystery surrounds the crime. Casey was a prosperous young merchant and is not known to have had any enemies. His friends fear that some jealous rival waylaid and killed him. Others believe that he was murdered by highwaymen.

Dry Times for Missouri.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 24.—Rev. Bushnell, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for the Kansas City district said Saturday that in his estimation it would be only a few weeks until Missouri would be half prohibition. "There are 114 counties in the state," he said, "and forty-seven of them have voted against the saloon. Only ten more dry cities are needed to make the 'wet' and 'dry' counties equal. There have been eight counties made prohibition territory within the last week. There will be several more elections in the next few weeks, and it looks good for the Anti-saloon people."

$100,000 Fire at Thomaston.

Thomaston, Ga., Sept. 24—The vehicle plant of the Atwater-Nelson Buggy company was destroyed by fire Saturday morning from spontaneous combustion. The fire burned rapidly on account of the paints and oils, and in a short while the building was consumed. This was one of the most complete factories of this kind in Georgia and was doing a large business and afforded employment to a large force of men who will be idle now until the plant can be rebuilt. The property was worth about $100,000, and was insured for $75,000.

BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

Grewsome Mystery Discovered on Beach Near Seattle Park.

FINGER PRINTS ON NECK

Detectives and Police at Work on Another Trunk Mystery in Which a Beautiful and Unknown Woman Is the Victim.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24—A grewsome trunk murder mystery developed in Seattle Monday with a beautiful and unknown woman as the victim. Fortunately, some clews also discovered by the police, may lead to an early clearing up of the tragedy.

Sunday morning Stephen Anderson found a trunk washed ashore on the beach of Fairleroy park. His curiosity led him to make an investigation which revealed the contents of the trunk to consist of a nude human body. Anderson hurriedly notified the coroner and the police. At the morgue it was found that the woman had been choked and strangled to death.

Finger Prints on the Neck.

There are deep finger prints in her neck and throat, around which one of her own undergarments had been secured and tightly tied. In the trunk with the body were numerous articles of clothing, such as skirts, waists, shoes, stockings and undergarments. What space remained after bending and doubling the body into the trunk, the murderer filled with rocks and shells from the seashore, thus hoping to so weight it down as to carry it to the bottom.

Besides the clothing, which may lead to the identity of the woman, the murderer left a letter mixed in with the garments. It is through the medium of this letter that the police hope to clear up the mystery.

Letter Signed "Edith."

The missive is written on the letter heads of J. B. Covington, a hay, grain and feed dealer doing business in St. Paul. It is addressed to Frank Covington and is signed "Edith." There are six or eight pages to the letter, the envelope of which could not be found in the trunk. The writer addressed Covington as her brother and the letter is commonplace, speaking of photographs sent him, etc. There is nothing to further disclose her identity in the letter.

A sheet found in the trunk bears the initial letters "A. S." in red ink. The body is that of a girl 19 or 20 years of age, 5 feet, 3 inches in height, light hair and blue eyes, weight probably 125 pounds.

From the condition of the body the police think the murder was committed four or five days ago, possibly a week.

Saved in Spite of Himself.

Atlanta, Sept. 24.—Percy Askew, 25 years old, of 81 North Boulevard, was carried to the Grady hospital Sunday night about midnight, suffering from a dose of wood alcohol and some poison, the nature of which the doctors were not able to determine. At the hospital he resisted the efforts of the physicians to save his life. There efforts, however, were successful, and he will recover. He refused to talk when asked his reason for taking the poison.

Boy Swallows Marble, Causing Death.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 24.—Information has been received in the city of the death of Edward Bizzell, a 13-year-old boy, at Monroeville, who was choked to death by swallowing a marble. The boy was at play when he put one of the marbles in his mouth and swallowed it. Before assistance could be secured the young fellow had gradually choked to death.

No Mayoralty for Longworth.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth arrived here Saturday from their Hawaiian trip. Mr. Longworth who has been mentioned as a possible republican candidate for mayor of Cincinnati, in an interview, said that he would not under any circumstances accept the nomination.

TROOPS ATTACK MOORS.

Natives Refuse Peace and Hostilities Are Resumed.

Casa Blanca, Sept. 24.—Negotiations for the cessation of hostilities having failed, General Drude has resumed the offensive and burned the Moorish camps and dispersed the tribesmen, who offered but little resistance.

These operations were chiefly notable for a brilliant force march of the French troops, who covered forty kilometers inside of twelve hours.

The expedition, consisting of 2,000 infantry with a detachment of cavalry, artillery and native auxiliaries, left camp before dawn and formed into two hollow squares, one behind the other. In this formation they marched some distance under cover of darkness and unobserved by the tribesmen.

A heavy morning sea fog came up at daybreak and forced a half hour's halt, during which shots fired by the advance guards gave the alarm to the enemy.

The tribesmen came up in large numbers but a vigorous attack by the first square soon dispersed them. No further stand was made by the enemy during the march, although scattered groups of horsemen harassed the French flanks.

After the destruction of the camps had been effected the tribesmen returned to the attack, a troop of cavalry, repelling a spirited charge by the Moorish horsemen. The French then abandoned their defensive formation and marched in columns to camp.

Their losses were one killed and ten wounded.

19 WOUNDS IN BREAST.

Proprietor of a New York Factory Is Horribly Mutilated.

New York, Sept. 24.—Eppisonio Arcara, proprietor of an East Side ladies' skirt factory, was done to death in his factory Sunday. His enemy, not satisfied with inflicting 19 stiletto wounds, any one of which might have caused death, mutilated the body in a horrible manner.

The only police clew is two clearly defined imprints of a thumb and a forefinger on the jamb of the factory door.

Arcara's bookkeeper and his foreman have been detained by the police and these and other employees may tell something in the murdered man's life that may snow a motive.

Comer Call Extra Session.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 24—Governor B. B. Comer has appointed Nov. 7 as opening day of the extra session of the Alabama legislature. "The purpose of the extra session is to determine who controls this state, the people or the railroads," said the governor. "Some people say that extra sessions are expensive, but we believe they are economical when such tremendous consequences attach to the meeting. It seems very strange that the railroads are not willing to give to these people of Alabama, without a fierce contest and stubborn opposition, a part of what they have conceded to other states. For instance, in many states 2-cent passenger rates have been established by law and the railroads have acquiesced."

Woman's Body Found in Well.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 24.—News has reached Thomasville, Ala., of the tragic death of Mrs. Richard Ott, whose body, with throat cut from ear to ear, was found floating in the water of an abandoned well in the farm area of her husband, a well known planter, whose place is in the Tallahatta Springs neighborhood of Clark county, twelve miles west of Thomasville. The body of Mrs. Ott was found Friday afternoon. It has the appearance of having been in the well two or three days, although Mr. Ott says he left his wife at home Friday morning when he went to his fields.

Mrs. Leiter Ill.

Paris, Sept 24—Mrs. Levi Z. Lieter, widow of the capitalist and mother of the late Lady Curzon, is confined to her room at the hotel Ritz here, suffering from liver trouble. Mrs. Leiter's physicians have ordered her to take a complete rest.

EIGHT LIVES LOST

Captain and Crew of Seven Go Down With Steamer.

CAUGHT IN A HEAVY GALE

On a Bleak Southern Shore of Lake Superior the $50,000 Steamer, Alexander Nimmick, Came to Grief—11 of Her Crew Saved.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 24—The $50,000 lake steamer Alexander Nimmick, of Cleveland, Ohio, was wrecked on Saturday night on the bleak southern shore of Lake Superior, 13 miles west of White Fish Point.

No living soul was within many miles of the desolate place where the survivors laboriously managed to pilot the life boats through the raging surf. No help was at hand to minister to the exhausted and frozen sailors or to care for the bodies of the six or seven victims washed up on the rocks by the waves.

The dead:

Captain John Randall, of Algonac, Mich.

Steward Thomas Parent, of Port Huron, Mich.

First Mate James Hayes, of Moorse, washed overboard and supposed to be among the dead.

Four sailors.

The scene of the wreck is half a day's tramp from Grand Marais village, the Vermilion Point life saving station, or the White Fish Point light house, and details of the wreck are difficult to obtain.

Eleven managed to spill themselves up exhausted on the uninhabitable, uninhabited coast, but one boat containing Captain Randall and five of his men, capsized in the surf and all were lost.

RAILWAYS VS. LUMBERMEN.

Over One Million Dollars Ordered Repaid by Court.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 24.—H.H. Tift, and other lumber manufacturers, comprising the membership of the Georgia Saw Mill association, allege that they are confronted with a scheme of the Southern railway and the lines forming the Southeastern Tariff association, together with the great car foundries and lumber consumers of the west, to defeat the decree of the United States courts giving back to the producers the 2 cents per hundred pounds tariff placed by the roads five years ago.

More than $1,500,000 must go back to the saw mill men out of the freight paid under the illegal tariff, and since a standing master has been put to the task of taking evidence by Judge Emory Speer, the lines have joined several car foundries and consumers in a claim that the latter parties are the real concerns entitled to the rebate.

Their ground for complaint is that when the excessive tariff was levied, the producers in the south raised the price of lumber, and forced them to pay an increase sufficient to meet the extra freights. The American Car company is charged with taking the initiative in these claims as urged by the railroad lines. The positive statement now is that they will come forward with their demands before the court.

Preparing for Immigration.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 24.—Plans are rapidly shaping up for the reception of the first foreign immigrants to come to Savannah by direct steamer. Some time next month this vessel is to arrive from Trieste, Austria, and there is activity already on Hutchinson's island, where the Seaboard Air Line is to erect an immigrant station. Work on this station will soon be well under way, and everything will be in readiness by the date of the vessel's arrival.

Another Wireless Station.

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 24.—Mr. Marconi arrived at Glace Bay, C. B., Sunday night to make preparations for the establishment of a trans-Atlantic wireless communication between Canada and Great Britain.

Deluge Was Not Confined To One Section, But Was General.

COTTON CROP WILL SUFFER

All Through the Sea Island Belt, Including Southern Georgia, Visited by Heavy Showers—Fine Lowlands Are Also Flooded Everywhere.

The [illegible] rain, which started about midnight Sunday night and continued at brief intervals during Sunday night, Monday, Monday night and the greater part of Tuesday, was one of the heaviest that has visited this section of the State in a long time.

[illegible] seemed to be general, extending not only through this immediate section, but into Southern Georgia. [illegible] arriving from Valdosta and other South Georgia points state that the rain came down in torrents, and that the country has been flooded.

It is feared that the rain, coming at this time, has proved of great damage to crops, especially cotton, which was open in the fields, and could not be gathered on account of the scarcity of labor.

The [illegible] woods are also covered, which is proving a serious detriment to the naval stores and crosstie interests.

DEATH OF MRS. BAUKMAN.

Well Known and Much Beloved Lady Passes Away at Archer Monday.

Mrs. Annie Baukman of Archer died at her home near that town on Monday evening about 6 o'clock of [illegible] after an illness covering a period of some time.

Deceased was a native of Smithfield, N. C., and was born about [illegible] years ago. She came to Florida about 1862 from Georgia, however, where she had resided for [illegible] or five years. She was for [illegible] and up to the time of her death, a consistent member of the [illegible] church, and has always been an active Christian worker.

Deceased is survived by a brother, Alex Avera of this city, one sister, Mrs. Richardson of Seattle, Wash., and three sons, J. H. Acree of Jacksonville, and Alexander and John Acree of Archer, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

The remains were brought to this city Tuesday afternoon, arriving here at 4 o'clock. The funeral cortege was formed at the depot, owing to the lateness of the hour of the arrival of the train, and the interment was in Evergreen cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends, and many and handsome were the floral decorations.

ACCIDENT TO A LAD.

While Working Shingle Machine Both Hands Were Badly Lacerated.

While working at a shingle machine at the mill at Fairbanks Tuesday afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock, Fletcher, the fourteen-year-old son of I. F. Wilson, had the misfortune to get both hands horribly mutilated in the saw.

As soon as the accident occurred the little fellow was brought to this city and attended by Dr. Lartigue.

Fletcher showed remarkable nerve, bearing up bravely under the ordeal. The little fellow's injuries will disfigure both hands, but it is fortunate that it was no worse.

JUDGE MASON'S COURT.

Pistol Toter and Three Gamblers Arrested on a Passing Train.

While the north-bound train on the Atlantic Coast Line was standing at the station Monday afternoon, Deputy Sheriff Walker made a "haul."

There was a private car attached to the train bearing a number of negroes in charge of a contractor who had picked them up at various places through South Florida. Mr. Walker ascertained the fact that some of the members of the party were gambling, when he promptly entered the car and arrested M. Quartermann, Joseph Gaines, Sol. Wells and John Metts. A gun was found on the person of Quartermann, who was also a member of the quartette of gamblers.

The men were arraigned in Judge Mason's court. Quartermann was assessed a fine of $100 and costs, or three months, upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and $30 and costs, or three months, on the charge of gambling. The others were fined $30 and costs or three months each. In default of payment of fines the quartette were sent to the "gang" to serve out their sentences.

EAT WHAT YOU WANT.

Science Has Now Found the True Way to Cure Indigestion.

A few years ago, when a sufferer from indigestion went to a stomach specialist, the result was a rigid diet list that almost meant starvation.

But the first thing to do in the case of indigestion or stomach weakness is to strengthen the muscular walls of the stomach and intestines, so that they will care for the food that is eaten. In no other way can this be done as well as by taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal. This restores strength to the stomach muscles and stimulates the pouring out of gastric juices, so that the food is digested readily and its nourishment retained in the system to build up energy and vitality.

Do not think the sick headache, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, spots before the eyes, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms that are the direct result of indigestion, will go away of themselves. The stomach must be built up and strengthened by Mi-o-na before you can be well and strong, free from suffering and distress.

The guarantee that J. W. McCollum & Co. give with every 50-cent box of Mi-o-na, to refund the money unless the remedy cures, shows their confidence in the treatment.

THE NEWS FROM BELL.

Railroad Station Completed—Serious Rains—Other Notes of Interest.

Bell, Sept. 24.—We are having a series of rains doing considerable damage to cotton—but very favorable to gardens just planted.

Wm. Thomas lost a fine mule, cost $275. The mule died with colic.

The contractor, J. L. Sparkman, completed the depot, and it is a nice building—a credit to any town. The citizens are well pleased, and the very accommodating agent, Mr. Coming, is in charge. Wm. Thomas has the credit of the first bill of lading.

James Bryant has had his storehouse painted. Others are estimating bills of paint to spot their business places and dwellings.

N. J. Williams has purchased the old Williams stand, and opened to the public trade and cotton buying.

Wilson Griffin has a fine boy; also Mr. Perkins has a fine girl. Mothers and babies are doing well.

Deceased was well known in this city and section. He had been for several years extensively engaged in the manufacture of lumber at Morriston. He is survived by a wife, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

The remains were taken to the former home of deceased in South Carolina, where the funeral will be held.

Cures Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Emperor of Austria Vaccinated.

Vienna, Sept. 24.—As a means of protection against the smallpox epidemic which has broken out in Vienna, the old emperor of Austria has allowed himself to be vaccinated. At first Franz Josef made objections on account of his age—he is seventy-seven years old—but after a consultation had taken place between his private physician and a professor of medicine, who persuaded his majesty that the operation was really necessary, he gave in.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. WORKING WOMEN, WHAT THEY SHOULD KNOW

MRS. SADIE ABBOTT — MRS. PREE McK...

Women for the most part spend their lives at home, and it is those women who are willing and ambitious that their homes shall be kept neat and pretty, their children well dressed and tidy, who do their own cooking, sweeping, dusting and often washing, ironing and sewing for the entire family, who call for our sympathy.

...weather of the past two days, the rain falling in torrents at intervals, the visitors, realizing the disadvantages under existing conditions, appear to be enjoying their stay here. Postmaster Lynch, Assistant Postmaster Bell, as well as the members of the committee and citizens generally, are exerting themselves to entertain the city's guests.

This morning the visitors will be taken about the city in carriages, and will visit the various places of interest, including the University buildings and grounds.

In all, this promises to prove a most successful convention, in point of benefit from exchange of ideas and everything else.

THE HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION.

Funds Are Needed for Repairs, Etc., and Subscribers Should Pay Up.

A very important and interesting meeting of the executive committee of the Hospital Association was held on Monday afternoon at the office of Secretary Bayer.

The hospital is well officered and equipped for work, and all those needing its care and ministrations will receive the best attention of skilled physicians and graduated nurses. The hospital charges are below the ordinary cost of such institutions, and special terms are made for patients who are unable to pay the regular rates. The physicians of the city serve gratuitously all such cases. The hospital has done considerable benevolent work, and will continue to do so.

Some needed equipment and repairs, not at all large, and some deficits on account of charity work, call for help. And the secretary was directed to collect the $1 annual subscriptions from the members of the association—those fees for 1906 still unpaid and those for 1907. The executive committee would greatly appreciate this promised co-operation from the large number of subscribers in Gainesville and Alachua county. Send your dues to F. Bayer, secretary.

HAVING A BIG TIME.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Coffey Enjoying Visit to Their Old Kentucky Home.

A letter has been received in this city by a friend from W. P. Coffey, who, with his good wife, is spending a few weeks at their old Kentucky home.

Mr. Coffey states that the weather is exceptionally fine in that section of the Blue Grass State where he is fortunate enough to be located, and that it is proving real invigorating to both himself and wife.

At the time the letter was written, however, the author stated that Mrs. Coffey had gone away to her former home for a few days' visit to relatives, but would join him soon.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will be glad to learn that they are being benefited by their trip.

An Exciting Runaway.

There was an exciting runaway on East Liberty street about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, when the horse attached to a buggy occupied and driven by Miss Pattie Dempsey became frightened and made a dash. After going about a hundred yards, however, the animal stumbled and fell, which probably saved the young lady's life, as it gave her an opportunity to leave the buggy.

Miss Dempsey was picked up in a fainting condition and taken into the home of Mrs. A. H. Leonard, 304 East Liberty street, where she was soon revived.

The horse is reported badly injured, but the young lady's friends are congratulating her upon her escape.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Weaver have removed from the cottage on North University street, where they have been residing for the past few years, to the new residence on East Church street, directly east of the home of Col. A. M. Morrow, where they will be at home to their friends.

The Baird Hardware Company have a change of advertisement in this issue, to which the attention of the public is called. This firm, which is one of the most reliable of its kind in the State, is making a special run on cutlery of every description and price. It would pay intending purchasers to give them a call.

Stringfellows to Return.

As was stated several weeks ago, Mr. Stringfellow and family, who were for years residents here, have decided to make their home in Gainesville again. They have been residing in Jacksonville for several years.

Mrs. Stringfellow and Mrs. J. F. Edwards, who have been abroad all summer, reached New York on the 1st inst., where they were met by Mr. Stringfellow. They proceeded to Opelika, Ala., where the children are at school, and will reach Gainesville about October 1. Friends will be glad to welcome them to their old home.

New Scruggs Home.

The new Scruggs home on East Magnolia street, East Gainesville, is rapidly nearing completion. This will be one of the most modern homes in that section of the city, and a credit to the owner.

Contractor August Wenske states that, under favorable conditions, he will finish the job in about three weeks.

This house will be two stories in height, and will contain nine rooms.

The San Francisco Call refers to Vice-President Fairbanks as "John Warren Fairbanks." At least this is quick as funny and a great deal more original than "Mr. Icebank."

Mark Twain has declined the honor of escorting the President down the Mississippi. Mr. Twain has evidently heard something of the difficulties attending attempts to steer Mr. Roosevelt.

An Indiana woman wants a divorce because her husband reads Shakespeare all the time. She ought to have it too. The idea of an Indianian going back on "home products" that way!

The official organ of the coal dealers declares that more coal was mined during the past summer than ever before in the same period of time. Therefore the price must be raised, of course.

As if it were not enough for the President to scare Wall Street out of a year's growth, the order for the fleet to sail to the Pacific has thrown the whole town into terror of a Japanese bombardment.

Senator Clapp of Minnesota can see nothing but Roosevelt in the Northwest. But Senator Clapp was sure last fall that Governor Johnson would be defeated; and he is thus discredited as a political prophet. All the Republican statesmen who want a chance for their followers at the public pap bowl are for Roosevelt.

FAIRBANKS' COCKTAILS.

A new version, via Detroit, of the "Fairbanks cocktail bout" does not, unfortunately, bear the stamp of veracity, although it is vouched for by Bishop Joseph E. Berry. The Bishop's version of the matter, as he is reported, says: "There probably is no doubt that liquor of some sort appeared on the Vice-President's table when he entertained President Roosevelt at Indianapolis, but as it is told to me the Vice-President did not order the drinks and did not even know they were served.

"Mr. Fairbanks never touches a drop of intoxicants himself, but it is well known that President Roosevelt likes a drink now and then.

"When he came to Indianapolis the word went from the President to the caterer, whether directly or through his secretary, that he wanted the drinks, and the drinks were served.

"The arrangements were entirely in the hands of the caterer, and it is creditable that Mr. Fairbanks did not even notice that the drinks were on the table."

Now, in the first place, why at this late day blame President Roosevelt, who is too much of a gentleman to order drinks to be served at a dinner in another man's house? Either Bishop Berry is so green that the ban lambs will bite him, or he is attempting in a very flimsy way to try to drag Fairbanks out of the cocktail mire. But there is the wine that followed the cocktails with the other courses of the dinner. Did the President also order that? Perhaps Bishop Berry, who is doubtless as wise as a serpent and as harmless as a dove, will further enlighten the anxious Methodist brethren. Most of us don't care one way or the other whether there was cocktails and wine, or only water served at that dinner, if the Methodist brethren had not kicked up a row about it. But there is an ethical question involved that is quite serious: Did Brother Fairbanks try to favor prohibition when in the company of Methodists, and show a more liberal spirit when President Roosevelt was his guest? He undoubtedly had the right to provide cocktails and wines for the President and his other guests, but why have it denied by his friends, or try to blame the drinking on the President? The Bishop says: "President Roosevelt likes a drink, now and then," but he cannot make us believe that even the wicked Loeb would with a fiendish delight try and involve the Prohibitionist Fairbanks in a drinking bout.

In speaking of Southern Presidential possibilities, Claude A. Swanson, present Governor of Virginia, should not be overlooked. He won distinction as a member of the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives in the 55th Congress, 1897, when the Dingley tariff bill was prepared. The other Democrats on that committee at that time were J. W. Bailey of Texas, Benton McMillan, Joseph A. Wheeler of Alabama, Samuel M. Robertson of Louisiana, and George B. McClellan of New York.

After spending some time at the springs, Prisoner John F. Gaynor, of Gaynor and Greene fame, now asks to be permitted to take a sea voyage in order to repair his "shattered nerves." So far as we can see, there is nothing the matter with his nerve—beyond its abnormal development.

Geo. Bernard Shaw is "disappointed in King Edward," and says so right out loud; which shows that George's mouth has lost nothing of its cunning art of getting its owner talked about.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Here's another question of veracity, mendacity or something of that sort. The Mansfield (Ohio) Daily Shield says: "Official Prevaricator Loeb says the President is taking no part in the Cleveland campaign, although Burton, whose veracity is not questioned, said in effect, Roosevelt had urged him to run." Either somebody has lied or nobody has told the truth. In either case, the Ohio Republicans will be deceived, but nobody else will.

The Jamestown Exposition, which had a great many knockers at first, is now receiving praises from every direction. It is one of the best expositions ever held, and is a great deal larger than the Buffalo Exposition, and is not far behind the one recently held in St. Louis. Every American who can possibly do so, should visit it, and learn something about the progress of this wonderful country of ours, and the opportunities it offers.

Capt. Frank D. Pooser, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Ocala, died at his home in that city on Sunday morning, September 22, at the age of 67 years. He had served Marion county in the Legislature for one term and two terms as tax collector. He will be remembered by many of the older residents of Alachua county as having at one time been a resident of Old Newnansville.

"Too much Johnson" for President Roosevelt in Cleveland, and yet there is no more ardent reformer in the country than Tom Johnson. Why is the President so jealous of Democratic reformers? He can't expect to be the whole hog.

The Elba (Ala.) Clipper wants Mr. Bryan nominated for President again, because when the election is over he will make such "an elegant ex-candidate." Such honesty of expression is rarely found in these degenerate days.

...White Man's Whiskey and the South's Great Race Problem

The Pensacola Journal of last Sunday contained the following excellent editorial:

When Seaborn Wright, the great negro orator, speaking to a Pensacola audience last week, drew his masterly picture of the part which the saloon plays in the troubles between the races in the South today, he told the truth which every man within the sound of his voice at once recognized and admitted:

That two churches—one white and one colored—in the same community, may hold the same kind of services, sing the same songs, and preach from the same texts, and a race problem is the last thing in the world that they think about.

That pull the pulpits out of those churches, install in each a bar with a white aproned bartender behind it, let but one go to dishing out liquor to white men, and the other to colored men, and you have a race problem inside of twenty minutes.

That it was white men's liquor in the crazed brains of drunken negroes that caused the Atlanta race riots. It is a fact which no man has ever thought of denying or will attempt to deny. It was the open, licensed barroom that caused the bloodshed and rioting in Atlanta, and it is the open, licensed bar-room that is at the bottom of a large part of the trouble between the races everywhere.

The negro is not, inherently, a bad man. The sober, industrious, hard-working negro seldom, if ever, gets into trouble. He is trusted and respected by his white neighbors, and they live side by side, each in his respective sphere, without malice or friction or trouble of any kind.

But when a shiftless, worthless negro fills up on white men's whiskey and proceeds to spread terror through the community, he not only causes trouble, but the innocent, law-abiding, and respectable members of his race suffer in consequence.

The good negro in the community will not stand for any such a condition as this, but what can the good negro do when an open grog shop stands on every corner ready to entice and debauch the weak members of his race? It might be different with them if the good negroes did not have to suffer for these things, but they do suffer and they do get the blame when they are in no way responsible.

Close the saloons out of the South and the race problem will be practically solved. Prohibit the existence of dives, operated by white men, for negroes alike, for the sale of liquor to the lower class, and the law-abiding, respectable negroes will no longer have to bear the stigma of crimes for which they never have been responsible.

This is a duty which the white race owes to the negro and a duty which the best element of negroes owe to their own race. Let white and colored alike decide to vote the traffic out.

Throat Cut from Ear to Ear.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 23.—The body of Carl Mabrey, of Abilene, Tex., evidently murdered Saturday night, was found Sunday in a clump of bushes near the Texas and Pacific railway's entrance to the fair. The murder was brutal in the extreme. The throat was cut from ear to ear, the skull fractured and the knife was plunged seventeen times into the heart and the body had been dragged some distance from the railroad tracks and the arms were stretched stiffly above the head. Robbery is believed to have been the motive.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

We may delude ourselves by the sunny day, or by the glare of electric lights, but when the bewitching hour of twilight has come, when the shadow forms of old friendships and lost loves flit through the room, oh, how we yearn for just one moment's grasp on the dear old care-free life. We long to hear once more the plaintive voice of the singer in the happy summer-time. Once again we would breathe the aroma of the flowers. We sigh for peace and rest that goes with the coming of the world's loud roar. Once more we would view the world with trusting, innocent eyes, with the belief that all are what they say they are and all is what it seems.

It is not an easy task for one who has trained the vision to look for shadows to see the dawn. It is always difficult to travel in new paths—to adjust yourself to the advance of thought and action. Look for the light that burns in your own inner sanctuary; look for the love that blossoms in your own heart; look first for the good that brims in the chalice of your own heart. When a man galls under the effort to adjust himself to an ever-shifting present, it is an almost infallible sign of self-depreciation. Put a premium on yourself. Be the equal of the age in which you live—as well as its product. Otherwise, you will be ground to powder under the tread of the advancing hosts.

"Humanity" justly asks the question if we cannot forget the individual in his work, separate the pure from the impure, and glorify that which is noble? Shall we always remember that Christopher Marlowe was killed in a drunken brawl, that Francois Villon was a jailbird, that Rabelais was filthy, that Byron was a libertine, that De Quincy was an opium fiend, that Shelly was an athesist, and that Poe was a drunkard? In a sense, we should not care what the world's great men were as individuals. We did not know them personally but if they gave the world something that made it better they are entitled to our respect and their weakness ought to excite nothing but our sympathies.

She Found Relief.

Chateau To Be Museum.

Paris, Sept. 24.—A splendid bequest has been made to the little town of Bruges, in the Pas de Calais, and, therefore, to the French people. Mme. Le Sergeant de Monnecove, nee Foster, who has just died has left to the town the big chateau of Raddingham, which contains some very fine works of art. By the terms of the will the chateau is to be turned into a museum, and to be called the Foster et Monnecove museum.

WRECK ON SOUTHERN.

Broken Rail Causes Accident—Many Passengers Are Injured.

Washington, D.C., Sept. 24—Thirty-two passengers were injured, none of them seriously, by the derailment of the Chattanooga and Washington Limited train on the Southern railway just north of Ryans Siding, Va., 30 miles south of Charlottesville, on Sunday morning. A broken rail was the cause of the accident.

The entire train, composed of a baggage car, day coach and three sleepers left the track, the sleepers being almost destroyed by fire.

A special train was quickly made up and proceeded to this city with all the passengers of the Limited.

The wreck blocked the track for several hours, all trains in the meantime being detained.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. H. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Polar Bear Beasts of Burden.

Copenhagen, Sept. 24.—Polar bears may be used instead of Eskimo dogs in the next expedition within the arctic zone. That, at least, is the plan of the Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen, who says he intends to harness the ice bears to his sleighs to cross the polar plains. Amundsen has made experiments with polar bears at Hagenbeck's famous menagerie in Hamburg. He says the experiments were successful, and that the bears, properly trained, would be quiet in harness. That is unless they meet any of their wild brethren, when there might be trouble.

ALABAMA RATE LAWS.

Action of Montgomery Freight Bureau Stirs Up Railroads.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 24.—The Montgomery freight bureau has sent out letters to merchants asking them to route all freight by those lines which have accepted the state laws reducing rates.

This is taken as a form of boycott and the contesting lines are very much worked up over it.

The only lines which are not giving the new rates are the Louisville and Nashville, the Western of Alabama and the Central of Georgia. Taey are bound to lose heavily if the policy accepted. The letter works out b is accepted. The letter works out a scheme for shipment from all territory that will avoid the three roads not in line with the state rates.

Alabama has an anti-boycott law that may be invoked to resist the movement.

Pioneer Stage Driver Dead.

Los Angeles, Sept. 24—Oscar Todd, a California pioneer, who established the first stage route from Texas to this state, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred L. Baker, Saturday at the age of 72. Mr. Todd had been unconscious for twenty-four hours preceding his death, and the end was peaceful and painless. In 1858 Mr. Todd crossed the plains with a band of argonauts whom he piloted. The courage and marksmanship of this stage driver of the early days of the West, when desperadoes, Indians and Mexican bandits abounded, made him a distinguished man.

QUEER LIZARDS.

Those Have the Power of Spouting Blood From the Eyes.

That certain lizards have the power to emit a stream of blood from their eyes has been a tradition of the southwest from time out of mind, but many scientists have classed it with the jewel in the toad's head and the hoop snake. Raymond Lee Ditmars, curator of reptiles in the New York Zoological society, made exhaustive research to ascertain what foundation in fact, if any, there is in the tradition of the blood spouting lizards. He had nearly made up his mind that it was purely mythical when he came upon a startling demonstration of its truth. He had received a particularly fine specimen of the Mexican horned lizard and after photographing it proceeded to [illegible] it. The result he tells in his "Reptile Book."

"The latter process," he says, "seemed to greatly excite the creature. It lightly threw the head slightly upward, the neck became rigid, the eyes bulged from the sockets, when there was a distinct sound like that produced if one pressed the tongue against the roof of the mouth and forced a small quantity of air forward. This escaping sound, consuming but the fraction of a second, was accompanied by a jet of blood at great pressure.

"It hit the wall four feet away at the same level as that of the reptile. The duration of the flow of blood appeared to be about one and a half seconds, and toward its termination the force gradually diminished, as indicated by a course of drops down the wall and along the floor to a position almost under the spot where the reptile had been held. The stream of blood seemed to be as fine as horsehair and to issue from the eyelid, which was momentarily much swollen.

"For some time after the performance the eyes were tightly closed, and nothing could induce the lizard to open them. Within two minutes after it was placed on the ground the protruding aspect of the eyeballs and the swelling of the eyelids had disappeared.

"Most surprising was the amount of blood expended. The wall and floor showed a course of thickly sprinkled spots about one-eighth of an inch in diameter. There were 103 of these spots."—Philadelphia North American.

THE PAY CAR.

Its Coin Rack, Crammed With Yellow Boys, a Tempting Sight.

The good old days are gone. In these heathen times railroad men are paid by check. Of the pay car and its luxurious travels C. F. Carter writes in the American Magazine as follows:

"A metal coin rack crammed to the muzzle with three denominations of yellow boys, flanked with silver, and on the desk behind it a very large wooden tray, on which were long columns of yellow coins—d'ye ever see anything so pretty in all your life? No wonder your eyes stuck out until you could have used them for hat pegs.

"And all the time an exquisitely musical 'tinkle, tinkle, clink-clink' welled up from coin rack and counter in response to the calls of the assistant paymaster. Talk about Beethoven's symphonies!

"If it were not for that strong wire screen you could have touched that fascinating tray. For the infinitesimal fraction of a second a wicked thought flitted through your brain. Then you almost fainted as your roving eye stared down the barrel of a monstrous revolver. It was only in a rack, but it was within easy reach of the paymaster's hand and most eloquent for all that. Half a dozen of its fellows lay in the handiest places, while as many Winchesters lying on tables and settees came in strong on the chorus.

"Hurriedly your vagrant wits busied themselves with all the Sunday school lessons you had ever learned. As your subconsciousness perceived that the head of the road's secret service department stood on the platform with his eyes intent on every man in the car at once, while Conductor Linkenfin stood on the ground outside very much alert, with his coat tail bulging suggestively, your bosom swelled with pride over the watchful care the company had exercised to bring its honest toilers their hard earned money."

Power of the Waves.

The power of waves, says M. Brouzin in La Nature, is the sum of two efforts, one dynamic and due to the orbital movement of the water particles, the other static and dependent on the height of the center of gravity of the mass raised above its normal position. Theory and observation seem to show that the total power of waves is divided equally between these static and dynamic effects. If a body of water meets the wall of a structure there is a shock, and this is most violent at the water surface, diminishing with the depth. At the moment of meeting jets of water rise sometimes to very great heights.

AN ODD SUPERSTITION.

British Fishermen Balk at the Name of Graham.

One of the most curious of British fishermen's superstitions, the one which perhaps to this day has the strongest hold upon them, is that connected with the name of Graham. No fisherman will go to sea if he has heard this name mentioned, nor will he do any manner of work upon that day. He will refuse to sail in a boat with any one bearing the name, and a house painter from Newcastle called Graham, who had been sent to do some work in one of the large houses, found his life made so unbearable by the villagers that he incontinently returned to the town, leaving his work uncompleted. The women who bait the lines in the winter will unbait every hook and rebait the whole length—the labor of hours—if they hear it mentioned. A local tradesman bearing this unfortunate patronymic is never referred to save as "Puff;" another, an innkeeper, is known as "Lucky Bits." No rational explanation is to be found. On one of the most intelligent fishermen being questioned on the subject he laughed the idea to scorn. Why, his daughter was married to a Graham. But, he added, a strange thing happened two years ago when he was off at the herring fishing and had not been home for some weeks. Having received a letter at Shields to say that his son-in-law was ill, he hailed a passing boat which had come from the north, asking if they had heard how Jack Graham was. "And, wad ye believ't, no soonor had as syed the words than theor wes a crash, and the mast went ower the side!" None of the crew spoke to him for the rest of the day.—New York Post.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by all druggists.

Wanted Money Too.

Ned, walking with his father, saw him give a beggar 5 cents and inquired into the matter.

"What did you give that man 5 cents for, papa?" asked Ned.

"So that he might eat bread, my boy," said the father.

That evening at the supper table it was observed that Ned declined to eat any bread, in any shape.

"Aren't you eating bread nowadays, my boy?" his mother asked.

"No, mamma."

"Why not?"

"So papa'll give me 5 cents."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Climbing 199 Steps to Church.

The only way of reaching the old parish church at Whitby, in Yorkshire, from the town is by means of 199 stone steps—probably as curious an approach to a place of worship as any in the kingdom. The church stands on the east cliff some 250 feet above the sea level, and to watch the crowd of worshipers before and after service threading its way up and down the winding stairway is a sight to be remembered.—London Strand.

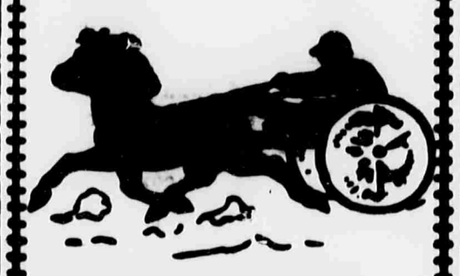
This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by all druggists.



HOW BONNER WON SUCCESS

The career of Robert Bonner, the veteran publisher, furnishes a signal illustration of the value of persistent and ingenious advertising. When he began the publication of the paper whose phenomenal success brought him fame and fortune, he did not wait for the people to find out slowly and gradually, the interesting features of his journal.

He forced his enterprise upon public attention by a [illegible] of the necessary [illegible] which at that time was without precedent in publishing. While pages of daily newspapers were rented at high prices to bring forth the merits of his undertaking.

From one end of the country to the other the names of Bonner and his Ledger were made familiar to the people by constant repetition.

Conservative publishers, jogging along in the ruts of old routine, prophesied bankruptcy and ruin for this unconventional innovator, but Bonner kept on spending a large share of his receipts in buying publicity, and these receipts increased with startling rapidity.

Every dollar disbursed in this way brought in more dollars until croakers were confounded and pessimists in this particular branch of business silenced by his tremendous success.

The lesson is one that is as well worth heeding today as it was forty years ago.—Philadelphia Bulletin.
